

#1:

The trial produces our _____ and _____.

1 Kings 17:12; 1 Kings 17:17; Luke 8:23; Psalm 30:5

A) The trial robbed her of her _____.

B) The trial produces a _____ of _____.

#2:

The trial prompted _____ and _____.

Job 3:23; Romans 8:28; 1 Kings 17:18-20

A) The trial's _____ was _____.

B) The _____ of the trial was _____.

#3:

The trial _____ an _____.

1 Kings 17:21-23

A) A _____ of God's _____.

B) A _____ of God's _____.

Life Group Questions:

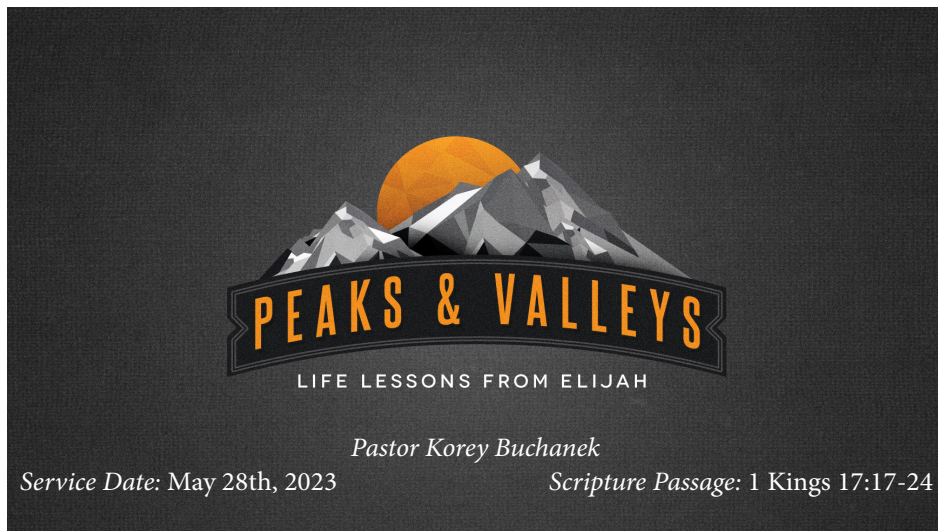

1. Describe a moment where tragedy in your life has somehow pointed out the faithfulness of God

2. What should this woman have believed about God for taking her son in the middle of His daily provision of their needs?

3. What problems do you see with the widows thinking as this story takes a turn in verse 18?

4. How does Elijah's response mirror or contradict your response to people's harsh words toward you as a follower of Christ?

5. Read 17-20. How would you help someone understand the request that Elijah makes for the child?

#1:

The trial produces our _____ and _____.

1 Kings 17:12; 1 Kings 17:17; Luke 8:23; Psalm 30:5

A) The trial robbed her of her _____.

B) The trial produces a _____ of _____.

#2:

The trial prompted _____ and _____.

Job 3:23; Romans 8:28; 1 Kings 17:18-20

A) The trial's _____ was _____.

B) The _____ of the trial was _____.

#3:

The trial _____ an _____.

1 Kings 17:21-23

A) A _____ of God's _____.

B) A _____ of God's _____.

Life Group Questions:

1. Describe a moment where tragedy in your life has somehow pointed out the faithfulness of God

2. What should this woman have believed about God for taking her son in the middle of His daily provision of their needs?

3. What problems do you see with the widows thinking as this story takes a turn in verse 18?

4. How does Elijah's response mirror or contradict your response to people's harsh words toward you as a follower of Christ?

5. Read 17-20. How would you help someone understand the request that Elijah makes for the child?